Social and Personal

The fall opening up of affairs in all the different women's organizations in this city has its beginning in September. Summer is not the season of real idleness that it appears. The leaders of women's movements during the months spent in mountain resorts, in travel or at the seashore, are busy planning the programs that will take shape and progress during the ensuing.

The prospect of unusual activity will have its inaugural at the meeting of the Richmond Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy September 10th, at the Hotel Ligon, to elect delegates to the Confederate reunion scheduled for October in Norfolk. The decision of the Daughters in regard to the monument at the site for the monument are among the vital questions that will be decided within the next few months.

The interest that Confederate women feel in the project of the Stuart monument committee and in the building of the Battle Abbey in Richmond deepens and broadens the coming year. The men of the past are not even the passing of more than forty years has dimmed. The Association for Preservation of the Virginia Antiquities is entering its energies upon Jamestown and the much that remains to be accomplished there before the swift passing of time shall have made the great anniversary year of 1907. Every future meeting of the association is fraught with the greatest importance. The light of constant new discoveries by excavation at Jamestown and in the improvements projected and carried out there.

The Woman's Club will shortly have ready for publication its literary and musical course for the coming year. The club is also president of the National Society of Dames, it can be well imagined that the Dames will again hear their full part in some creditable and patriotic State and national work during the year upon which they are soon to enter.

The Daughters of the American Revolution in Richmond entered actively last year into the spirit of the work carried on elsewhere in the State and outside of it by other chapters of Daughters. Their prospects are brighter now than for several years. They have their aims well in hand and are animated by a desire to grow and to do.

With the opening of September the housekeeper's mind instinctively turns towards the interior decorating and furnishing of the home.

The contents of our third floor departments, such as Rugs, Druggets, Portieres, Lace Curtains and Mattings, constitutes the store news to-day.

We made extensive preparations weeks ago to meet your needs in these lines—perhaps long before the thought of such needs entered your mind.

A careful, painstaking canvass of the markets enabled us to secure what we consider to be the best assortments in these lines that we have ever had.

It is not cheap merchandise, but GOOD goods at low prices. We quote a few of the prices to show you just how reasonable they are. They represent very fairly everything else in the departments.

Prospective Weddings.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Franklin, of this city, and Mr. Luke Franklin, of Atlanta, Ga. The wedding will take place early in October at Norwood, O., the home of the bride's father.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Straus for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Corinne Straus, to Mr. Leon Baer, formerly of Richmond, but for several years a resident of Richmond.

The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride, No. 814 West Grace street, on September 10th, at 7 P. M., and will be witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and groom. An informal reception, at which friends will be welcomed, will be afterwards held from 9 to 11 P. M.

Mr. Daniel W. Tucker announces the engagement of his granddaughter, Miss Jessie E. Ligon, to Mr. Noble M. Jordan, of Dallas, Tex. The wedding will take place September 10th in Pine Creek Baptist church, Powhatan county, and the pastor of the church, the Rev. Mr. Harrison, will officiate.

Miss Lucille Ligon will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. Lewis Jordan will be the groom's best man. The list of bridesmaids will include Misses Ligon, Miss Annie Williams, Miss Nellie Balmer, of Powhatan, and Miss Price of Danville. The ushers will be Mr. Moses Swan, Mr. Irving Jones, of Powhatan; Mr. Bailey, of Danville, and Mr. William S. Ligon, of Richmond.

Mills-Cosby.

Miss Virginia Ellen Cosby and Mr. Simeon Conway Mills are married. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cosby, of No. 614 Twenty-fourth street, the Rev. J. O. Meade performing the ceremony. The bride wore a stylish tailored gown of mode cloth and carried white asters. Her maid of honor, Miss Mabel Atkinson, was in white organdy and had a bouquet of pink asters. Mr. Marshall Mills, of Hanover, was best man. The wedding march was executed by Mrs. Thomas George.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will take a Northern wedding tour of about ten days' duration.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mosby are guests at Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, during this month.

Miss Mary Donnan is the guest in Staunton of Mrs. H. A. Walker.

Mrs. Nannie Langhorne Shaw will enter her hunters for the Lynchburg Horse Show in October. Mrs. Shaw's "Queen Bee" and "Vesta" have become famous prize winners at recent Virginia shows. Mr. C. D. Langhorne will also drive his four-hand team at Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alston Cabell will leave to-day for Asheville, N. C., where they will spend some time for the benefit of Mr. Cabell's health.

Mr. Dreher is the author of an illustrated article on Berlin business methods in the September Century.

With his wife he is now visiting relatives in Boston and New York. Later both will go with Dr. Dreher to a family reunion at the old Dreher homestead, Seilwood, E. C.

Misses Lucy and Helen Eggleston are visiting the Misses Sutherland in Danville, Va.

Mrs. W. T. Robins expects to leave to-day for Bel Air, Craig county, where she will spend the remainder of September.

Miss Gettie McGuire is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Alex. Robertson, of Staunton, Va.

Miss Eleanor Steinbrecher, after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Elkton and Annapolis, is now visiting Miss Agnes Contesse, of Annapolis, Md.

Miss Daniel, of Charlotte county, is spending the week at No. 218 East Franklin street.

Miss Mary Maury Fletcher, the daughter of Mr. S. N. Fletcher, of Warrenton, Va., who has been visiting in Fallsburg, Penn., for two weeks, will leave there on Sunday with her friend, Miss Pauline Semple, for Denver to spend several months.

The fate will be for the benefit of the Girls' Aid Society White Box Fund. The lawn will be prettily lighted and decorated, and a delicious refreshment will be served, and the young hostesses will be pleased to receive the patronage of all their friends.

Mr. J. M. Spencer, accompanied by his family, and Miss Maudie Spencer, his sister, arrived in Richmond yesterday from Newport News on their launch, Lady Louise.

Misses Ada Allen and Jessie Haldeman are the guests of Mrs. Minor B. Hamrick, in Staunton.

Miss Emily Jennings has returned from a delightful stay at Crozet, Albemarle county.

Misses India and Frances Wray, and Misses Edna Phillips, who have been visiting Mrs. Wray's family in Richmond, have returned to their home in Hampton.

"Slate Top," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Washer, has been the scene of a delightful house party, in which Misses Edna and May Washer have proven ideal hostesses.

The party was composed of all outdoor games, watermelon feasting and dancing. Members of the party included Miss Lilla No. 101, Miss Lilla No. 102, Miss Lilla No. 103, Miss Lilla No. 104, Miss Lilla No. 105, Miss Lilla No. 106, Miss Lilla No. 107, Miss Lilla No. 108, Miss Lilla
